

National Chemical Laboratory

(Council of Scientific & Industrial Research)

Dr. Homi Bhabha Road, Pune – 411 008, India

---

Publication and Science Communication Unit

Press release

June 21, 2010

Dr. S. Sivaram awarded the Goyal Prize for 2007 in Applied Sciences

Dr. S. Sivaram, Director, National Chemical Laboratory (CSIR-NCL), Pune has been awarded the Goyal Prize for 2007 in the subject of Applied Sciences. Dr. Sivaram (Director: 2002 – present) has been recognized for his sustained contribution to polymer science and its industrial applications for over three decades. Dr. Sivaram joins other distinguished scientists of India, who have won this prize in earlier years in Applied Sciences, namely, Dr. R.A. Mashelkar, Dr. K. Kasturirangan, Professor J.B. Joshi, Dr. N.K. Ganguli and others.

The Goyal Prize carries a cash award, a gold medal and a citation. The Prize was awarded to Dr. Sivaram by Professor Goverdhan Mehta, in a ceremony held at Kurukshetra University on April 19, 2010.

Dr Sivaram receiving the award from Prof Goverdhan Mehta

---

Notes to Editor:

National Chemical Laboratory (NCL) (www.ncl-india.org), Pune India is a research, development and consulting organization with a focus on chemistry and chemical engineering. It has a successful record of research partnership with industry. NCL is a flagship laboratory of the Council of Scientific & Industrial Research (CSIR, www.csir.res.in) which is the largest network of publicly funded research institute in India.