

The United States-India Educational Foundation (USIEF), New Delhi invites applications from Indian institutions for hosting a U.S. Expert in 2012-13 for a short-duration of two to six weeks under the Fulbright Specialist Program. The Fulbright program pays for international travel and honorarium for the scholar and the host institution has to commit for board/lodging, local transportation and in-country travel if required as part of the program.

Click for program description and the application form. The application deadline is September 30, 2011.

For details on USIEF activities, please visit: www.usief.org.in.