Information for Applicants - Case 2009

The scheduling of test is being done in a phased manner. Please do NOT panic if your login and password has not been received. The last date of scheduling is only applicable to candidates who have received the email for scheduling their test.

After the scrutiny of applications, which is still going on, slot booking will be enabled through a link in the CSIR website, provided eligibility conditions are met, documents verified and payment is received.

Please read the password carefully.

The password will have 8 characters (2 characters in Capital, 2 characters in lower case, 2 characters will be digits and 2 special symbols)
