No. 8/73/HRDC/PPD-2011

Dated: 2nd February, 2011

Office Memorandum

Subject: Human Resource Development Centre (HRDC), Ghaziabad:
Continuation as a permanent centre under the National Laboratories
Scheme of CSIR

1. CSIR - HRDC (Human Resource Development Centre) was conceptualized and established for providing Human Resource Development support to the system. The avowed mandate of the Centre has thus been to train, groom and augment capabilities of scientists/ technologists/ technical support staff/ administrative staff of CSIR constituents. Pursuing its mandate earnestly, the CSIR - HRDC has matured into a training centre of exemplary standing. The initiative has been part of CSIR's plan effort under its R&D Management Support Scheme.
2. The Governing Body in its 177th meeting held on 15th December, 2010 considered continuation of CSIR - HRDC as a permanent centre under the National Laboratories Scheme and approved of the same. The budgetary provision for CSIR-HRDC from the financial year 2011-12 onwards, would thus be made from the National Laboratory Scheme.
