

8. Solid-State Food waste Bioenergy plant installation at Trivandrum International Airport.

The entire food waste in both domestic and international terminal is treated in this system, which is compact and operates with minimal water requirement, and produces more biogas. The biogas produced is recovered as electricity.