Startups Catalysed by CSIR

This compilation highlights the success stories of start-ups that have been catalyzed by the technologies, products, and know-how from CSIR labs and institutes. The book provides a brief overview of these start-ups and the CSIR innovations they have adopted. These start-ups span various sectors, including agro-technologies, food products, medical instruments, and medicinal and aromatic products. It showcases how CSIR's contributions have supported entrepreneurial growth and innovation across different industries.
